

Craft Activity: The Looking Glass

From a craft store, purchase wooden picture frames, brushes, and bottles of airplane paint. Have the members paint the frame with the colors and design they choose to describe themselves. Print the photo of the good and bad characters and have the members mount in the picture frame. Provide colored markers for members to write “I am” on the top of the frame and their initials on the bottom. Finished project should look something like as follows:

