Recreation: The Choice

Purchase several small boxes from a craft of novelty store, or use small shoe boxes decorated. Place a prize in each box, but have one price be much nicer than the other two. Have a member select a box. Then have another member select either the box just selected or one of the remaining boxes. Continue for several rounds. Announce that the next member to select a box will be the only choice for the entire tribe. Whatever is in the box will be the prize for each tribe member. Have enough of each price to give to all members of the tribe.

Suggested prizes:
Tootsie Roll
"Hope" wrist band
Pencil
Dollar Bill or 50 cent piece
Small notepad
If a prize too large for a box is desired, place a piece of paper with the item name on it in the box.
